AN ANGRY PROTEST

Made by Citizens of Johnstown Against the Payment of Taxes.

THEY HOPED TO ESCAPETHIS YEAR.

But Notice is Given That the Collector Will Visit Them as Usual.

A MAN WHO SAW THE DAM BREAKING

Says That the Overflowing Water Was the Cause of All the Damage.

Notice that Cambria county taxes will be due in July has been received in Johnstown. The people are generally indignant, as they had hoped to escape paying taxes this year. Two banks are open and manufacturing enterprises are to start. A man who lived near the South Fork tells how the dam broke.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

JOHNSTOWN, June 22 .- County Treasurer Howe notified the people to-day that he would be in Johnstown July 3 to collect the county tax. Many have been under the impression that no taxes would be gathered this year. When the posters were put up the people were very indiguant and tore them down. There is a universal howl over the matter, and Mr. Howe will have an elephant on his hands when he arrives here to collect the money. Unless the commissioners ex-onerate the property owners the taxes will have to be paid. Mr. George Gramling. who lived near the dam, is authority for the statement that the break in the dam did not occur at once, but that the water overflowed and falling down washed away the embankment. The opening grew larger and some of the water ran out. It was 15 minutes before the dam broke away entirely. It the rush had occurred at once the damage would have been greater. Mr. Gramling claims that the dam was in good condition.

The Finance Committee met this a ter-noon and assigned 24 houses that will be here to-morrow morning. The other 76 of the first 100 are not expected to arrive before Tuesday. These houses were given to the most worthy and needy persons that the committee could find,

SHELTER FOR EVERYBODY.

In a short time it is hoped there will be enough houses to protect everybody. The furniture for the houses has been ordered, and consists of an outfit that will answer all immediate purposes. Applications for houses can be made at the Cambria Iron Company's office and at Moxham's.

The First National and Johnstown Sav ings Banks resumed business for the first time since the flood this morning. The people are beginning to brighten up, and a happier teeling prevails. The officers are speculating how long it will be necessary to maintain the commissary departments. Colonel Spangler detailed officers to-day to visit the various places and find out the number of stores, men carning wages, etc. Two of these officers reported to-night, but the question is so serious that the Colonel had no desire to express an opinion. It is certain that the time has not yet come for

SOME REAVY LOSSES. The following named persons suffered these losses: Colonel C. T. Frazer, $40,000; St. John's Church, $125,000, insurance, $22,-000; Jahn McKenna, $21,000; John Parkes' estate, $50,000; Jacob Livergood's estate, $25,000; electric light company, $40,000; James A. McMillin, $10,000; J. W. Stevenson, $15,000; the Misses McCabe, $10,000; W. G. Stewart & Co., grocers, $50,000; Jacob Fockler, $12,000, and many others who lost

renter and smaller amounts
One of the most rerious losses of the Cambria Iron Company is a number of valuable patterns, that cannot be duplicated, that were carried away. Some of them were found at Sung Hollow, and this led the company to send out men to search for them, but no more were recovered.

MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISES.

The Johnstown Gas and Water Company will begin the work of reconstructing its gas works next week. The water pipes are in good shape. The Johnstown Manufacturing Company will resume work next Monday. The electric company is now furnishing light for the atreets and some houses. They are running two inconderhouses. They are running two incandescent and one are machine.

Father Tahaney says the insurance com-panies are very allow in paying up. As soon as he receives the $22,000 insurance he will commence to rebuild St. John's Church. The Red Cross People have erected new tents and a lying-in ho-pital in the Seventh ward. The citizens raised a flag over the structure, and Dr. Pancoast of Philadelphia, the famous surgeon, who was here today conducted the dedicatory services.

Religious services will be held in various places to-morrow. Some of the meetings will be out of doors at street corners.

BALOONS MUST SHUT UP.

The President Judge Orders Them Closed -The Soldiers to Stay. IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

JOHNSTOWN, June 22 .- Colonel Hudson denies that he said that the Fourteenth Regiment was soon to be relieved by the Governor's orders. General Hastings stated that the guard would remain for a week or ten days more and possibly longer. Colonel Perchment, the Commander, said he had heard nothing of such an order. He doesn't think it will be necessary for the troops to stay much longer, and after doing the work so far and wearing out their clothes, the Colonel has no desire to see his men leave and have another regiment step in and divide the glory. He has sent home about 65 men, and from time to time, as the necessity for guards grows less, others will be relieved, but it is about settled that the regi ment will continue until the end of the General Wiley said the town is full of tough people, and there are from 20 to 30 saloons in the place independent of the numerous "speak-ensies." The General will close them up if the owners do not; but the following order from Judge Johnston will settle the vexed problem to some ex-

TYPHOID AND BLOOD POISONING. Disenses From Which Some of the Workmes at Johnstown Are Suffering.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) JOHNSTOWN, June 22 .- Two thousand of James McKnight's men were removed to the Red Cross Hospital to-day suffering from typhoid fever. Some of the men working on the drist have blood poisoning. The skin on their arms is burned off by the ann, when the poison gets into their body The Red Cross people deny that they intend to remove the hospital near to the general

Dr. Wakefield reports considerable sickness in Kernville resulting from exposure. There are a number of houses still standing in the town, and the neighbors have been very kind. All the sick who object to going to the hospital are cared for by the residents.

NO WORK TO-DAY.

Good Progress Made in Removing and Burning the Wreckage. [FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT,] JOHNSTOWN, June 22 .- Mr. James B.

Scott arrived here this evening with Rev. Mr. Fox, of Allegheny, who will preach to-morrow. Mr. Scott will leave to-morrow evening. He thought that fair progress had been made in removing the debris, so far as he could see,

No work will be done to-morrow. Major

Phillips, the terror, is making good progress with the work on the driet. He said tonight that it was now only a question of time until it was removed. The rubbish is being rapidly burned,

A SECRET SOCIETY

Which Wants the Irishmen on the Chicago Police Force Bouncrd.

PERCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, June 22 .- Visitors in New York from Chicago tell a strange story of recent doings in that city. A secret society has been lately formed in that city, the objects of which are similar to that of the Patriotic Sons of America, and which is known to the initiated as the Order of Deputies. In the ranks of the order are several men of considerable means. Among them is said to be ex-Mayor Roche. Suspecting that the aims of the order were not friendly toward citizens o Irish birth, several members of the Clan-na-Gael managed to have themselves initiated. What they learned realized their suspicions, and it was determined to corrai the books of the order. This was done one night recently. A cab, in which were the archives of the order on their way from a meeting to a place of security, was stopped by a number of determined men, who absconded with the documents. A perusal showed that one of the aims of the society was to bounce all Irishmen from the police force and replace them by Scandinavians, who abound in the Garden City. Two hundred of the police orce had black marks set opposite their names. Publication is contemplated of some of the documents, with fac similes of the names of the "Deputies," and a curious complication of matters is expected to arise.

ELOPEMENT IN HIGH LIFE.

The Niece of Cardinal Taschereau Strikes Out With a Young Englishman.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 OTTAWA, June 22 .- Miss Taschereau, niece of Cardinal Taschereau and daughter of Judge Taschereau, of the Supreme Court, cloped with a young Englishman named Beard, who has held a subordinate position in a ticket office in this city for several months past, Beard is a Protestant and Miss Taschereau a stanch member of the Roman Catholic Church. Before the indignant parents of the bride could ascertain their whereabouts the couple had been married by a Church of England clergyman.

Beard was a sort of Beau Brummel and had no desire to express an opinion. It is certain that the time has not yet come for contributions to cense, and the less said on this subject will be for the best.

Judge Taschereau, tather of the bride, will at once commence proceedings to recover his daughter and have the marriage annulled, on the grounds of Miss Taschereau not being of age. Naturally the affair has caused considerable excitement in social circles at the

A Farmer and His Two Horses Killed by the Same Bolt.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CHAMBERSBURG, June 22 .- Benjamin Morgan, a prominent farmer of Autrim township, was struck by lightning on his farm near Greencastle, last evening, and instantly killed. Mr. Morgan was cutting hay, driving two horses in a mower. A light shower was falling, but not sufficient to interfere with his work. Suddenly a small dark cloud directly over his head opened up with a preliminary crash of thunder, and the bolt from it struck him fairly in the forehead, killing him and both

The exposition of bric-abrac, although not coming strictly under the head of the "White Opening," is worthy of mention. This department has grown considerably since the opening of the establishment last fall. Then one corner of the basement held all the most valuable ware, now the basement under Hugus & Hacke has been rented for that purpose, and is filled with an exquisite array of Carlsbad, Doulton, Royal Worcester and cut glass, that makes a visit to this department desirable, if only to gratify one's love of the beautiful. Altogether the "White Opening" is perfect in every detail, even to the little whitecapped, white-aproned maidens, who are stationed here and there with baskets of white buds which they distribute to customers, until the lingerie.
